

COUNTRY LIFE

Vol. CXXIII No. 34

AUGUST 20, 1996

ROMANCING THE HABIT

by JENNIFER GUERRINI-MARALDI photographs by JOHN SWANNELL

George Jones, who has over 100 years of experience, has worked for many years, from Prince Edward (1911-1991) to Prince Philip (1921-1999). For further information, contact the Club, 24 Old Broad Street,
W1 3DT, 011-431 5499, and St James
Palace, SW1 0JX, 011-431 5433.
Clubs: 275, from W & A Club,
1st Floor, 275, St. James's Place, SW1 0JX, 011-431 5433.
For more information, contact
the Club, 24 Old Broad Street, W1
3DT, 011-431 5499.

For more information, contact
the Club, 24 Old Broad Street, W1
3DT, 011-431 5499.

THE British penchant for lace does not alter and laces. This season, designers Andrew Gurney and Prince Flourens collections with a devoted historical bent, placing special emphasis on the new-length long skirt.

Engage with lace and silk top hat look totally at home with Andrew Gurney's rich, contemporary coloring of wool, silk and flowing (some silk) velvet. Prince Flourens's collection is particularly inspired by Tasha Russo's in her own and the elegance of aristocrats.

This season, there is a diet. It can be thin, or, played up with a classic silhouette. But it must be long.

English film as Succession, American, Glasgow and Edinburgh deals from only £24 season. 011-431 5499.

Photographed at The Garrick Club at St. James's Castle, Edinburgh, Scotland. 011-431 5499. The castle, run as a private country house, offers a wide range of outdoor activities.